

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

NEW LONDON COUNTY.

NIANTIC

Funeral of Edward C. Luce—New Voters — Cottage Season Ending at Pine Grove.

There was another special meeting of the Niantic Public Library Association at St. John's chapel Friday afternoon.

Funeral services for Edward C. Luce were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Luce mansion in Main street. Mr. Luce died Tuesday morning. The funeral services were private.

The Epworth league held a shake-down Wednesday evening in the Methodist church parlors. There was a large attendance.

New Voters.

The following is a list of new voters made in the town last Saturday: Bert Erskine, William W. Chantley, Walter Parker, Joseph Robinson, Alva Morgan, Francis M. Beckwith, Herbert J. Crocker, Louis A. Burdick, John F. Hackett, Charles W. Stairs, William Edwin Taylor, George Starr Griswold, Axel L. Anderson, Herbert Marvin, Everett C. Benner, William Dickinson, Margaret P. Bacon, David L. Hildreth, Clifford Sprague. This long list of new voters will be a great benefit to the coming town election. The new Australian ballot will be used here for the first time, and a great deal of studying before voting time comes.

Mr. and Mrs. William Steward of Ocean avenue, New London, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Howard Tuesday.

Mrs. Robert B. Sherman of Pawtucket, R. I., has been visiting Mrs. James Howard.

Pine Grove Notes.

R. P. Williams and family left on Wednesday for New York, where Mr. Williams resumes his duties on Oct. 1st at the Berkeley school. The Williams family has spent nearly four months in the grove, occupying the Windfall cottage in South street. Mr. Williams is principal of the Berkeley school, this being his second year at the school.

Joseph C. Burnham gave a phonograph party Tuesday evening at his cottage in Broadway to about a dozen friends.

John D. Griswold returned to Boston Friday evening after spending a short vacation in the grove.

Arthur J. Griswold has resumed work in New Haven after spending Sunday here.

Herbert Reed, traveling salesman, is the guest of Mrs. Reed in Orchard street.

R. L. Manwaring is entertaining G. R. Saunders and family on Saturday. Miss Carrie Boden of New Haven spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Hepey C. Boden.

Mrs. Charlie Twiss and daughter left Saturday for Providence.

Inspected Westerly Corps.

Mrs. H. E. Goodenough of Broadway attended the G. A. R. meeting at Atlantic City last week. Mrs. Goodenough was in Westerly Tuesday evening and inspected the W. R. C.

Mrs. A. B. Goodenough, M. D. of Hartford spent a few days the first of the week at her cottage in High street.

Home Dorman left Saturday for Hartford, where he has secured employment in a motor car factory.

The Washburn family closed their cottage in Center street Sunday and departed for their home in Norwich.

H. B. Goodenough returned to his cottage in Broadway Wednesday after a business trip of two weeks to New Haven and Hartford.

Mrs. Pauline Saunders and daughter, Mrs. Clark have closed their cottage in Cove street.

Mrs. N. Duchette of Norwich was in the grove Monday, calling on Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Goodenough.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashley T. Bohn of Norwich spent Monday and Tuesday at their cottage in Broadway.

Carl F. R. Parker is making repairs to his launch Crescent preparatory to taking the boat to Long Island City.

Miss Carrie Van Voort of Chester is a guest of her sister, Mrs. E. Aston.

Mrs. R. L. Manwaring left the first of the week for New Haven to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Manwaring.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Burdick have moved from New London to the grove, where they will spend the winter at their cottage in Orchard street.

H. M. Pitkin of East Hartford is occupying his cottage in High street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Manwaring will occupy the Whaley house in Main street, Niantic, during the winter months.

Mrs. E. B. Darrow left Wednesday for Hartford to visit friends.

Miss E. L. Colville has returned from Townsend, Vt., where she has been spending the summer.

LEDYARD

Auction Well Attended—Town to Vote on Question of School Supervisors.

Emmons White, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. P. White, started Wednesday for Yale, where he will enter upon his second year.

Many at Auction.

The auction at the late residence of Joseph A. Gallup on Tuesday was largely attended and the articles brought good prices.

The selectmen, with the town clerk and registrars, met on Saturday to make voters. There were nine on the list to be made. The following were admitted as voters: William L. Holdridge, Samuel Lester, Charles Caswell, Burdick Whipple, Harry Hays, Chapman R. Reeves.

Good Peach Crop.

Charles A. Gray and James B. Gray have about completed their peach crop. The former has sold about 3,000 baskets, nearly all going to the Norwich market. The latter has harvested about 2,500 baskets. The most of them were sold in the New London market. William L. Allen has also marketed 500 baskets.

About Labor day there was a glut in peaches, but the growers are well pleased with their income.

Senator William L. Allen was in Washington on Monday on business affairs.

Schools May Have Supervisor.

Mr. Potter of Danielson was in town Saturday, representing the state board of education. Mr. Hine will appoint a supervisor for the Ledyard schools, who will visit the schools often and see that they are commenced on time and there will be no tax upon the town for the same, the state paying the salary of the supervisor. The ballot read: Supervision of Schools (Yes), Supervision of Schools (No). A separate ballot box will be used for them.

LEONARD BRIDGE

Mrs. Frank Spaulding and son, Frank, returned to West Haven Wednesday, after spending five weeks at Maple Cottage, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Spaulding.

Samuel Johnson of New Haven spent Sunday at G. M. Williams.

Mr. F. J. Brown was in Westerly Saturday, visiting the dentist.

Rev. J. J. F. attended the preliminary meeting on Lebanon Green on Wednesday afternoon.

William Congdon, who has been visiting in West Haven, returned to G. M. Williams.

MOOSUP

Death of Antoine Vaillancourt—Doom During Open Air Service—Accident.

Last Saturday Antoine Vaillancourt died from an attack of apoplexy. He was 80 years of age and had been ill for some time. He was born in Vermont 30 years ago, and resided in this village about 20 years. He is survived by his wife and four children, Joseph, Fred, William and Mary, and by ten grandchildren. Funeral services were held at All Hallows church, Rev. J. H. Broderick celebrating a regular high mass. Burial was in the Wauregan cemetery.

Returns from Danielson.

Horace Warren, who some months ago moved to Danielson, has moved back to Moosup, and has obtained work in the cotton mills.

Painful Accident.

John Kelley, who is employed in the carding room of the Aldrich Manufacturing company's cotton mill, had his left hand badly injured last week by getting it caught in the machinery.

The Aldrich brothers are having a brick chimney 160 feet high built at their mill. The contractor is Alphonse Cusumano of New Britain.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller attended Woodstock fair last week, going by automobile.

An Ambitious Student.

Dana Potter, one of the graduates of the class of 1909 and 1910 of the Moosup grammar school, entered Wilburham Academy Sept. 21. He expects to become an electrical engineer, and is ambitious to go through college and Boston School of Technology.

Open Air Services.

The open air service last Sunday was attended by nearly 300 persons. There has not been the least rindism or disrespect shown in any service through August and September.

Fred Jacques has gone to Danielson and entered the employ of the Sherman mills as painter.

Straw Ride.

A jolly crowd numbering about 15 young people went to Danielson Tuesday evening for a straw ride, returning home in the small hours of the morning. Refreshments were served in Danielson.

Taftville Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Dupuis of Taftville have been guests of E. R. Dupuis the past week. Mr. Dupuis started this week for a business trip to California.

LEFFINGWELL.

Meeting of Sunshine Band—Miss Margaret Leads B. Y. P. U. Sunday Evening—Visitors and Visiting.

William Rogers and Miss Fannie Rogers of the Scotland road were the guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Beard and daughter Evelyn of this place and Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Whiting of Norwich enjoyed an auto trip to Attleboro, Mass., Sunday, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Beard.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Beard of Noble Hill were the guests of their son, Samuel C. Beard, of this place Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Rose spent Sunday with relatives in Montville.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Thompson of Pithville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Goodenough.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Harmon and Mrs. Williams of Willimantic spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Rogers, making the trip in the former's auto.

HANDOVER.

Blackburn-Pilling Marriage—A. B. Ladd Receives $4,000 Fire Insurance.

Miss Lena Pilling of Longwood, near Haddam, Yorkshire, England, was united in marriage Sept. 10 at her home with Charles Henry Blackburn. Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn will make their home with the father, William Blackburn.

Herbert Bennett and Carroll Peck left this week to attend the Lowell Textile school.

Miss Edith Peck has resumed teaching in Bridgeport.

More Than $50 Raised.

The Ladies' Guild gave its third entertainment on Friday evening, Sept. 23. Mrs. Standish conducted. Miss May's standish, a comic opera. Altogether more than $50 has been netted.

The week's guests have included Mrs. Mary Smith, Miss Addie Smith, Mrs. Frank Wayne, Miss Fannie Dyer of Albany, N. Y., and the Rose family of Loraine, Ohio.

Next Sunday's service at church will be a rally day.

Fire Loss Adjusted.

Allison E. Ladd has received $4,500 insurance on his fire loss.

Delegates have been appointed for the Preston conference next Wednesday.

LIBERTY HILL.

Palmer-Harvey Wedding Invitations Out—Wells Very Low.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Mary Palmer and Wallace W. Palmer, both of Liberty Hill, at Union church, Liberty Hill, Wednesday, October 5, 1910, at 1 p. m. A reception will follow the wedding ceremony, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Annie L. Harvey.

Mrs. George Starkweather of Franklin, a former resident, is spending a week here, visiting friends.

Inspecting Macomber Place.

A party came from Willimantic Sunday to look over the Macomber place. Wells are very low. We have had only a few sprinkles since the first of the month.

EAST WOODSTOCK.

Miss Jessie Wutrey returned to Boston Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. May spent Sunday in Pomfret with C. C. Aldrich and family.

A missionary meeting was held on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. H. J. Potter.

T. A. Turner is taking two weeks' vacation. There will be no preaching at the Congregational church for two Sundays.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Litchman have been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Allen.

OLD MYSTIC

Order of Exercises at Union Temperance Service—Students Return to School and College—Probate Appointments in Eldridge Estate.

A union temperance service was held in the Methodist church Sunday evening. Mrs. Jephtha M. Olmstead presided. Following was the order of service: Singing, The Crusade Psalm, by the choir. Prayer, Superintendent Horace O. Williams. Singing, God Speed the Right, by the choir. Reading, The Word to Churches, by Miss Esther Barnes. Singing, Some Glad Days, by the choir. Reading, All Praise to Patriots, by Clerk Barnes. Reading, How Shall I Vote and Why, Miss Florence Johnson. Singing, The Crisis, by the choir. Recitation, The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.

The Court of Last Appeals, by Miss Viola Eldridge upon which the gold medal was awarded her at the Willimantic contest. A generous collection was taken after which the solo, The White Ribbon, was sung by Mrs. J. Harold Williams, who was accompanied on the organ by Miss Mary H. Dean. Miss Gertrude W. Chapman was organist during the service.